

SCARA Robot (Automatic Sorting Robot)

A SCARA (Selective Compliance Assembly Robot Arm) robot designed for automatic object classification and sorting. Using sensors and programmed sorting logic, the robot identifies different objects and places them into designated locations. Such systems are widely used in manufacturing and industrial automation to improve productivity, accuracy, and consistency.